

2016 Kansai Immersion Programme

ILEP is offering 6 places for fully registered current teachers of Japanese (Years 1-13) in New Zealand to attend a two-week language and cultural immersion programme in September/October 2016 at the Japan Foundation Centre in Kansai, Japan.

Course Content:

- Sessions on Japanese culture
- Introduction of Japanese teaching materials/language and culture resources
- Activity based PD: includes orienteering, homestay, school visit

Selection Priorities:

- An intermediate level of Japanese equivalent to JLPT Level N5 or above
- Evidence of a strong commitment to on-going professional learning
- Demonstrated contribution to the Japanese language teaching community
- Teach students in Years 7-10

Programme timing:

Orientation Workshop: Saturday 30 July 2016
Programme in Kansai: 26 September to 7 October 2016

Costs:

The programme covers:

- Tuition fees
- Accommodation costs in a single room
- A subsidy on the international airfare ($1500 is covered by ILEP)
- Domestic return air travel to connect with international flight, where appropriate (ILEP)
- Pre-Departure Orientation Day: For those out of Auckland, fly in on Friday evening 29 July 2016 and join in everyone at a Japanese Restaurant Friday night. The Orientation Day will be held on Saturday 30 July, 2016.

The participant covers:

- Travel and medical insurance

Please contact Jennifer Thomson, Intercultural Programmes Co-ordinator, programmes@ilep.ac.nz to register your interest and request an application form.

The application deadline is 5:00p.m., on Thursday 26 May, 2016.

